TOMATO CANNERIES
 END SEASON'S WORK
 Largest Pack in History of the Industry—Good Catches by Oyster Tonnage.

Heathsville, Va., October 12.—Tomato canneries are finishing up their season's work, and this season has been the largest pack in the history of the business. While the crop has not been of the best, owing to the hot, dry weather, still it has been fairly profitable, and prices are satisfactory.

Oyster tongs are making good catches, and on account of lack of buyers, most of them are piling for higher prices. The market now is from 29 to 45 cents, according to quality. A few shuckings houses are running. The packers claim that the orders for shell goods are good, and the prices good, but they are unable to fill orders, because the electric light cannot get shuckings, because they now being employed in tomato factories.

Barges have been loading at Weems with shells to be freighted to Richmond for use on the roads. A barge will carry about 18,000 bushels.

The remains of H. M. Whaley, aged about sixty years, Confederate soldier whose death occurred in Baltimore, where he had gone for treatment, were brought down Friday morning, and interred in Roseland Cemetery.

Reidville, Rev. Hugh J. Taylor conducted the services. He is survived by several children.

Mrs. H. S. Lewis, aged about seventy years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jett Winston, on Friday morning. She is survived by four sons and six daughters, as follows: I. D. and J. W. Reynolds, Windy Point; G. F. Reynolds, Richmond; S. A. Lewis, Virginia; Nedames T. S. Neale, L. M. Dawson, R. F. Dawson, Windy Point; W. H. Hayden, Village; R. J. Burroughs, Coan, and Jett Winston, Callar. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Rainey, Jr., assisted by Rev. E. F. Hale.
